Plaintiff Joseph Rose (“Plaintiff”), by and through his attorneys, The Buzbee Law Firm, for his Complaint alleges as follows:

INTRODUCTION

1. Plaintiff was drugged and repeatedly sexually assaulted by Defendant Combs and several others, including as of yet unnamed Celebrity A. The assaults occurred at a 2022 award show after party, hosted by Defendant Combs in Los Angeles, California. The conduct described herein is shockingly typical of how Defendant Sean Combs conducted himself for many years. Many individuals and entities facilitated and participated in this abhorrent conduct. Sean Combs believed he was above the law and that he could do whatever he wanted, with impunity. He is not; he cannot.

2. For decades, Sean Combs (a/k/a “P. Diddy,” a/k/a “Puff Daddy,” a/k/a “Diddy,” a/k/a “PD,” and a/k/a “Love”) (described herein as “Combs”) abused, molested, raped, assaulted, threatened and coerced men, women, minors and others for sexual gratification, to assert dominance, and to conceal his abhorrent conduct. He accomplished these acts by and through a criminal enterprise built on his success as a rapper, record producer and record executive. Combs is one of the wealthiest musical artists in the world. Behind the façade of being a three-time Grammy Award winner, discovering and developing multiple famous musical artists, and ranking on Forbes’ list of the highest-paid entertainers in the world, there existed something sinister – a dark underbelly of crime, sex trafficking, forced labor, kidnapping, bribery and prostitution. Combs is a menace to society, women and children. While his wealth has kept him above consequence for years, Combs now faces the awesome power of the American judicial system and ultimately a jury of his peers, who will be asked to punish him for the deplorable conduct described herein.

Combs’ Businesses

3. Combs’ business enterprise is central to the pervasive acts of sexual assault and abuse committed by him during the last decades. Combs operated his business, headquartered at various times in Manhattan and Los Angeles, under a variety of United States-based corporate entities, including Bad Boy Entertainment, Bad Boy Books Holdings, Inc., Bad Boy Entertainment, LLC, Bad Boy Productions, LLC, Daddy’s House Recording Studio, Inc., and CE OPCO, LLC d/b/a Combs Global, f/k/a Combs Enterprises LLC, Combs Enterprises and Combs Global (collectively, the “Combs Business”). Corporate entities in the Combs Business portfolio included record labels, a recording studio, an apparel line, an alcoholic spirits promoting business, a marketing agency, talent discovery, a television network and a media company.

4. On the surface, each of these businesses served a legitimate purpose related to entertainment, music and other subjects. But in reality, Combs, by and through himself and his agents, employees and contractors, used these businesses to sexually assault, abuse, threaten and coerce hundreds of individuals through sexual quid pro quo schemes, as well as to take advantage of individuals with impunity thinking the victims would never seek recourse. Combs and his agents, employees and contractors, through these Combs Businesses, would tell victims, “this is what it takes to be famous,” “what are you willing to do to become a star?,” and “perform this sexual act or else” to coerce the victim into performing a non-consensual sexual act for the gratification of Combs and his cohorts.

5. Members and associates of the Combs Business engaged in (and/or attempted to engage in), among other activities, sex trafficking, forced labor, interstate transportation for the purposes of prostitution, coercion and enticement to engage in prostitution, narcotics offenses, kidnapping, arson, bribery, and obstruction of justice.

6. The Combs Business constituted an ongoing organization whose members functioned as a continuing unit for a common purpose of achieving the objectives of Combs.

Combs' Pervasive History of Sexual Assault and Violence

7. For years Combs and his businesses engaged in a persistent and pervasive pattern of abuse toward women, men, and minors. This abuse was, at times, verbal, emotional, physical and sexual. As part of his pattern of abuse, Combs manipulated both men and women to participate in highly-orchestrated performances of sexual activity with both commercial sex workers and unsuspecting partygoers. In some cases these were individuals who were contractors or vendors. In other cases, they were random individuals pulled from a hotel lobby, a show, or off the street. Combs ensured participation from these individuals by, among other things, obtaining and distributing narcotics to them with or without their knowledge, controlling their careers, leveraging his financial support and threatening to cut off the same, and using intimidation, violence, and illicit drugs.

8. Combs, while celebrated for his business acumen and influence in the entertainment world, has often been described in a more troubling light as powerful, manipulative, and problematic. His aggressive tactics, both in business and personal dealings, have drawn criticism, with many viewing him as someone who leverages his power to intimidate and control. This darker side of Combs' persona has been underscored by the numerous lawsuits and allegations that have surfaced over the years. Despite his undeniable success, his rise to the top is marred by a reputation for being ruthless and manipulative, using his influence in ways that have left a trail of legal and personal controversies including but not limited to the following:

- a. Nightclub Shooting Incident (1999): Combs was embroiled in a high-profile case related to a nightclub shooting in New York, involving his then-girlfriend, Jennifer Lopez, and rapper Shyne. Combs was acquitted of all charges, though the case remains a significant legal event in his career.
- b. Multiple Assault Allegations: Combs has faced several lawsuits related to alleged physical assaults, many of which have been settled out of court.
- c. Business Disputes: Combs has been involved in various business-related legal conflicts, particularly surrounding his Sean John clothing line and other ventures. These disputes often involved contractual disagreements and trademark claims.
- d. Claims by Cassie Ventura: Combs' former girlfriend, Casandra "Cassie" Ventura, filed a lawsuit accusing him of years of physical, emotional, and sexual abuse during their relationship. Cassie alleged repeated instances of assault, coerced sexual acts, and drug use, all contributing to an environment of fear and manipulation.

9. Combs particularly fancied the use of the popular date-rape drug Rohypnol, or GHB, to commit heinous non-consensual acts of sexual violence and rape onto countless victims. Combs often would secretly use the drug in an alcoholic beverage served at his parties, typically champagne or “lemon drops.” Partygoers were forced to consume the alcoholic beverage, containing GHB, either prior to entering or while at Combs’ party. There are also allegations of Combs dousing victims in lotions or similar body oils, also laced with GHB, so that the drug would be absorbed through the victim’s skin and make it easier to assault him or her.

10. Combs’ recurrent and pervasive physical abuse took place for multiple decades. His tendencies of violence and sexual assault were no doubt well known amongst his colleagues, employees, agents and businesses. On numerous occasions from at least on or about 1996 and continuing for years, Combs assaulted women and men by striking, punching, dragging, throwing objects at, and kicking them. Combs also assaulted children both physically and sexually.

11. In 1996, Combs was found guilty of criminal mischief for threatening a photographer from the New York Post with a gun. In 1999, he was arrested and charged with second-degree assault and criminal mischief in connection with assaulting a record executive. Combs was arrested again the same year for his involvement in a shooting at a club in New York. Another instance of violence occurred at a Los Angeles hotel in or about March 2016, which was captured on video and later publicly reported, where Combs kicked, dragged and threw a vase at a woman as she was attempting to leave his hotel room. When hotel security staff intervened, Combs attempted to bribe the staff member to ensure silence.

12. In the past year, numerous civil complaints have been filed by plaintiffs who allege that they had been sexually abused by Combs between 1991 and 2009. In November 2023, three lawsuits were filed against Combs under the New York Adult Survivors Act. Cassie Ventura, an artist signed to Bad Boy, sued Combs in New York for rape and physical abuse. She alleged Combs facilitated these acts by and through supplying Ms. Ventura with copious amounts of drugs and urging her to take them, beginning in 2006.

13. Joi Dickerson-Neal also sued Combs in New York, alleging Combs drugged her, sexually assaulted her and secretly recorded the assault in 1991.

14. Liza Gardner, whom Combs met at an event hosted by a record label affiliated with Bad Boy, sued him for allegedly raping her and a friend in 1990 or 1991 when she was only 16.

15. In December 2023, an anonymous Plaintiff sued Combs in New York for allegedly drugging and gang-raping her in 2003 when she was only seventeen years old. This victim alleged that employees and business associates of Combs, through their affiliation with the Bad Boy enterprise, lured her to Combs' home where Combs then raped her.

16. In February 2024, Rodney "Lil Rod" Jones, one of Combs' former producers, sued Combs for allegedly forcing him to engage in unwanted sex acts and sex trafficking, among other allegations. Mr. Jones alleged that Combs regularly drugged others, including minors, by giving them drugs laced with ecstasy (MDMA) and other date rape drugs. Mr. Jones alleged that Combs in fact drugged him as well in order to commit acts of sexual assault.

17. In May 2024, former model Crystal McKinney and April Lampros sued Combs. Ms. McKinney alleged that Combs drugged and sexually assaulted her at his recording studio in 2003. Mimicking what has now become a known pattern, Combs promised Ms. McKinney to help her with her modeling career in exchange for engaging in sexual conduct with him. Ms. Lampros, an intern at Arista Records, which was an owner of Bad Boy, also sued Combs in May 2024 in New York County Supreme Court for raping her on multiple occasions, secretly filming these acts, and showing the recordings to multiple people. Ms. Lampros also alleges that Combs ordered her to take drugs on one occasion before he raped her.

18. In July 2024, former adult film star Adria English – who was employed by Combs as an entertainer at his infamous White Parties that brought together the biggest names in the music and entertainment industries – sued Combs in the Southern District of New York for sex trafficking, alleging that he required her to consume drinks laced with ecstasy and secretly recorded the sexual acts.

19. In September 2024, singer and songwriter Dawn Angelique Richard also sued Combs. Richard was employed by Combs as part of the girl group Danity Kane, formed by Combs, and later as a key member of Combs' band Diddy – Dirty Money. She sued Combs in New York for sexual assault, false imprisonment, and for subjecting her to hostile working conditions due to her gender, including degrading comments and threats. Ms. Richard has alleged that Combs regularly supplied others including minors with copious amounts of drugs and alcohol, and subjected them to sexual acts while they were sedated and/or unconscious due to the drugs and alcohol.

20. In September 2024, a federal grand jury in Manhattan indicted Combs and charged him with sex trafficking, racketeering and the “creation of a criminal enterprise in which he abused, threatened and coerced women and others around him to fulfill his sexual desires, protect his reputation and conceal his conduct.” See United States of America v. Sean Combs, a/k/a “Puff Daddy,” a/k/a “P. Diddy,” a/k/a “Diddy,” a/k/a “PD,” a/k/a “Love,” Index No. 24 Crim. 542, Indictment (SDNY), at ¶ 1. The indictment explains that Combs' abuse of women and minors was enabled and conspired with by “the employees, resources and influence of the multi-faceted business empire that he led and controlled – creating a criminal enterprise whose members and associates engaged in, and attempted to engage in, among other crimes, sex-trafficking, forced labor, kidnapping, arson, bribery and obstruction of justice.”

21. Combs’ long history of violence unequivocally establishes that his actions are motivated by gender – both men and women. Combs has a profound contempt for women and a desire to dominate both minors and other men. His conduct shows a longstanding practice of denigrating, defeating and attempting to humiliate men, women and children. His practices and desires are different for men, women and children. But his actions are unequivocally motivated by the victims’ particular gender and age.

22. Plaintiff’s allegations herein substantially mirror Combs’ prior conduct as established through criminal indictments and other lawsuits. Through this case, Plaintiff seeks a full measure of justice from a man who thought his power, money and influence rendered him untouchable. Plaintiff joins many other victims by filing this Complaint in hopes their common voice makes it impossible for Combs to assault another person ever again.

JURY DEMAND

35. Plaintiff hereby demands a trial by jury on his claims in this action.

FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

36. Plaintiff, a dedicated personal trainer, worked with celebrities and other notable individuals concerning their health and fitness.

37. In or around 2022, a fashion designer whom Plaintiff trained told him she shared videos showcasing Plaintiff's distinctive workouts and exercises with Defendant Combs. This fashion designer told Plaintiff that Combs was impressed with Plaintiff's training regime and wanted to meet Plaintiff and feature him in a video.

38. The fashion designer eventually extended an invitation to Plaintiff for him to attend an exclusive awards show after-party in Los Angeles, hosted by Combs. The invitation stated a private car would pick Plaintiff up from his residence and escort him to the party.

39. As promised, on June 27, 2022, a black Lincoln Navigator arrived to escort Plaintiff to Combs' residence in the Hollywood Hills.

40. When Plaintiff arrived at the party, one of Combs' business associates greeted him at the entrance. This person explained Plaintiff needed to execute a nondisclosure agreement as a condition of entry into the party. Plaintiff ultimately consented to the agreement because he wanted to meet Combs and have an opportunity to promote himself and his business.

41. Combs' associate did not provide Plaintiff with a copy of the executed nondisclosure agreement.

42. After signing the agreement, Combs' associate then handed Plaintiff a drink which looked like a typical tequila soda with a cranberry juice mixer. Combs' associate instructed Plaintiff to drink the beverage as another condition to gain entry into the party. Plaintiff obliged and took several sips of the drink.

43. Once inside the residence, a model and current client of Plaintiff greeted him. Plaintiff felt more comfortable and at ease after seeing a familiar face.

44. Plaintiff observed numerous celebrities in attendance at the party, adding to the glamorous yet overwhelming atmosphere.

45. Eventually, a business associate of Combs guided Plaintiff from a large room illuminated with red lights into a smaller room. There, Plaintiff observed approximately a dozen individuals, including several well-known figures, who were engaging in group-sex activities.

46. Once inside this smaller room, Plaintiff began to feel disoriented, dizzy and weak – far beyond what he would expect from consuming a single alcoholic beverage. It became clear to him that something was wrong. He later realized someone had drugged him.

47. A photograph of an actual exemplary container used by Combs and/or his agents/employees to insert GHB into alcoholic drinks is seen below:

48. At this moment of realizing his significant impairment, Combs approached Plaintiff, removed his pants, and began performing non-consensual oral sex onto him.

49. Combs then directed Plaintiff to perform oral sex on another individual in the room, known as Celebrity A. Due to the haze of the drug he had been clandestinely served, Plaintiff could not resist Combs' coercion and ordering. He felt trapped inside of his own body – unable to control it or understand what was happening around him. As a result, Plaintiff was forced to perform nonconsensual oral sex onto Celebrity A. After Celebrity A finished, this individual spit into Plaintiff's mouth.

50. At this point, the drugs in Plaintiff's system were progressively hampering his motor skills and memory. The drugs caused him to lose consciousness for brief periods of time.

51. While in and out of consciousness, individuals at the party forced Plaintiff into sexual acts with both men and woman. Plaintiff's physical disposition made it impossible for him to reject their advances or otherwise control his body. These individuals, including Combs, essentially passed Plaintiff's drugged body around like a party favor for their sexual enjoyment.

52. The drugs in Plaintiff's system ultimately caused him to completely lose consciousness for an extended period of time. Plaintiff does not recall anything after this point.

53. When Plaintiff finally regained consciousness, he found himself outside of his apartment, disoriented, without a shirt, and without his phone. Plaintiff is unaware who took him back to his apartment or how he got there.

54. As a direct result of the traumatic events at Combs' party, Plaintiff has suffered severe emotional and psychological trauma, financial harm, and a significant loss of livelihood.

CAUSES OF ACTION
(Sexual Harassment and Sexual Assault – All Defendants)

55. Plaintiff hereby incorporates each of the foregoing paragraphs as if fully set forth herein.

56. By drugging Plaintiff, performing oral sex on him, and forcing him to perform oral sex and other sexual acts on others, Defendant Combs intentionally harmed Plaintiff and did so in a malicious manner. Further, all of Defendant's conduct was unwelcomed, yet Defendant persisted in the sexually exploitive behavior.

57. Defendants' conduct was done with the intent to harm, offend or cause Plaintiff emotional distress. Defendants' conduct created a hostile, offensive, and dangerous environment for Plaintiff.

58. Further, all Defendants, aside from Combs individually, worked in concert and conspired with Combs to allow him to engage in such behavior.

59. The Combs Business enabled and conspired with Combs to commit the crime of falsely imprisoning Plaintiff because Combs sexually assaulted Plaintiff at a party related to or referencing Combs Business. On information and belief, Combs Businesses routinely committed sexual assault and gender-motivated violence, as detailed in other civil lawsuits, to further the business purpose of Combs' enterprise. Given Combs' long-standing pattern and practice of committing sexual violence against women, the Combs Business had and/or should have had knowledge of Combs using such parties and venues for this unlawful conduct, and did nothing to stop it.

60. On information and belief, Plaintiff alleges that Defendants Organizational Does 1 through 10, inclusive, are other parties not yet identified who have enabled and conspired with Combs to commit the crime of violence motivated by gender, in the ways articulated above and/or in other ways.

61. On information and belief, Plaintiff alleges that Defendants Individual Does 1 through 10, inclusive, are other parties not yet identified who have enabled and conspired with Combs to commit the crime of violence motivated by gender, in the ways articulated above and/or in other ways.

62. As a result of Defendants' actions, Plaintiff suffered damages in an amount to be determined at trial.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff respectfully requests that judgment be entered against Defendants as follows:

- a. Awarding compensatory damages for all physical injuries, emotional distress, psychological harm, anxiety, humiliation, physical and emotional pain and suffering, family and social disruption, and other harm, in an amount to be determined at trial;

- b. Awarding punitive damages in an amount to be determined at trial;
- c. Awarding attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to any applicable statute or law;
- d. Awarding pre- and post-judgment interest on all such damages, fees, and/or costs;
- e. Attaching any and all of Defendants' real property and other assets located in the State of New York pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 64; and
- f. Awarding such other and further relief as this Court may deem just and proper.
